NEW HIGHWAY MAY PASS THRU PALATINE VILL.

Plan Calls for Moving of Route 19 a Block West of Hicks Road

SEPARATION OF GRADES IS PLAN

Immediate Construction Is Promised if Right-of-way Can be Obtained

The highway department of the State of Illinois has completed local surveys for Route 53, the so-called Half Day-Joliet route and is ready to definitely route such road over Hicks road, if a change can be made in the Northwest highway. That department is very favorable to the plan because it would be possible to make a grade separation with both the Northwestern R. R. and Route 19. If the plan is followed, it would be necessary to raise the Northwest highway at Hicks road to the same level as the railroad, have it continue west one block, turn north thru Prairie View, the Moehling, Deane properties and Palatine Ridge. This would mean that Route 19, where it now travels Hicks road, would be moved over one block further west. All the highway department asks is that the right of way be secured.

Mayor Olentord and other interested men are getting in touch with the owners of the property affected to see what can be done in that regard. Without the cooperation of the latter, the plan would necessarily have to be dropped.

Provision for Route 53 as an outer-belt highway, from Half Day to Joliet, and to pass thru Palatine was included in one of the state bond issues. After hearings held three or four years ago, Rohlwing road was selected for that part of construction in this immediate vicinity. DuPage county has been actively engaged in promoting its part of the highway, construction of which is now under way. Property owners in the northeastern part of DuPage county asked the state to change the route from the Rohlwing plan, west to Medina road, which would bring it into Palatine on Plum Grove avenue. The crooks and turns of Rohlwing road was one of reasons advanced for the change.

The state highway department made a number of surveys and selected the Hicks road as the most feasible. It would mean that the highway would follow its originally planned course thru DuPage county and thru Schaumburg townships. After passing the Glade corner, the highway would veer to the west thru the Glade property connecting with the present Hicks road stub. This road runs straight north and south to the Lake county line, from which point other plans could be necessary.

Local people are very hopeful that the right of way can be secured and the road built this year. It would place Palatine upon a direct north and south state highway, giving connection with nearly every highway radiation southwest, west and Northwest from Chicago.

MOTHER IS GONE

With an ending as beautiful and as peaceful as she had lived, Mother passed on to her reward Tuesday morning. She leaves behind her grieved and aching hearts, but a memory that is sacred.

We know that we are better men because of her and that the greatest monument we can erect is to so live as she would have us.

Mrs. H. C. Paddock Wife of Senior Editor Passes Peacefully Away

Mrs. H. C. Paddock, wife of the senior editor of this paper and mother of its publishers, passed on to her reward at 8:30 Tuesday morning, aged 79 years, 7 months, 13 days.

Mrs. Paddock had been in fairly good health for some time, but a cold followed by threatened pneumonia and a weak heart proved too much for her frail frame. She died in the manner in which she had always hoped she would—just quietly passed away without any pain.

Mrs. Paddock's condition became such Monday afternoon that a trained nurse was secured. Tuesday morning, she appeared to be much improved and relished her light breakfast. A few minutes later it was evident that the end was near and surrounded by her family, the end came.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in the Arlington Heights Presbyterian church, which she loved so greatly. Interment will be in Rand Hill cemetery.

Raymond F. Dvorak of the University of Illinois will again be the guest conductor. Mr. Dvorak is an inspiration to the boys and girls who work under him. They are looking forward to the Festival as the outstanding event in their musical careers.

Principal L. O. Bright of Antioch is again general chairman of the committee. Lynn Huffman of Benerville is in charge of the instrumental groups and Miss Rice of Libertyville is supervising the voice groups. Principal H. E. Underbrink of Libertyville will manage local arrangements.

New Village Officials Take Office

Village Treasurer's Report Gives Many Interesting Facts

While probably none except an auditor or one well versed in accounts can easily digest a financial statement of the many funds of the village, the following facts will be interesting to the tax payers of Arlington Heights, the information contained therein being taken from the April treasurer's report.

The village of Arlington Heights received during the month of April $14,000 in taxes, $2,000 in water rentals, $350 in business licenses, and other minor amounts totaling $16,523.00. Disbursements, which included 1929 time warrants, totalled $14,767.88, leaving a balance on hand of $1,755.12. The total of bills paid by the retiring administration Monday night was over $2,500. Salaries have precedence over other claims and will be paid first.

Deficiencies

While the treasurer has no record of approved bills, upon which neither time warrants nor vouchers have been drawn, his report submitted to the village board Monday night showed the following liabilities, for the payment of which there are no funds.

Time warrants for 1928, outstanding $6,867.49.

Time warrants for 1930 outstanding $13,508.79.

Bonds Nos. 7 and 8, well funds $2,000.00.

Public Benefits, 1929, unpaid $6,269.22.

Total $28,645.50.

The above total does not represent the total outstanding liabilities of the village as of April 30, for as stated above there are several thousands of dollars of bills upon which neither warrants nor vouchers have been drawn and upon which the treasurer has no record as they have not yet reached his office. Neither does the above take into consideration the amounts due the municipal band, etc.

This deficiency would be materially cut down if the 1929 tax money

It did not take the new Village board long to start the economy program which was one of the planks upon which the new members were elected. While no previous announcement had been made as to how savings would be effected by the board, it was soon evident that the village employees would be expected to do their part. Following the appointment of Geo. Palmer as health officer at a yearly salary of $175, applications were read for street commissioner, there being only two, Fred Hinze at $140 a month and Wm. P. T. A. TO MEET

The Parent-Teacher association will meet Tuesday, May 19, at 8 p.m. at the South school assembly hall. Which room will have the largest parent representation?

It was a shock to this community to the patrons of the Cook County Herald and to the many friends of the Paddock family when the word of Mrs. Paddock's sudden death was sent about the town. She passed into the larger life at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning just after her devoted daughter, Miss Lucile, had left home for her day's work. The sympathy of their many friends goes to the family in their irreparable loss.

A refreshing shower fell during the night, which will help to bring up small seeds lying in the top soil so dry in our gardens.

It is of interest to many who need or choose at times to "eat out" that we are to have an ideal tea room ideally placed and fitted. Those in the neighborhood to note that it is being wonderfully modeled. No doubt the opening will be a big event to crowds of patrons to be.

OBITUARY

MRS. JANETTE PADDOCK
Janette Styles was born in Schoolcraft, Michigan, Sept. 23, 1851, a member of a family of eleven children, whose father was engaged in farming the larger part of his life. Her girlhood days spent at Centralia, Ill., near Cairo during the Civil war period made her familiar with the horrors of war and which she vividly remembered all of her life. Her early Christian training was reflected throughout her life in the loyalty that she showed for the church and the things that it stood for.

After completing her education she became a school teacher and it was at Monome, Ill., that she was united to Hosea C. Paddock, June 30, 1880. Children were born in the years that followed. The fifty years of her married life were spent in the northern part of Illinois, residing at Wheaton, Rochelle, Waukegan, Libertyville, Palatine and Arlington Heights.

The deceased was an active church worker in each of the various localities in which she resided. She took a great deal of pleasure in the observance last June of her fiftieth wedding anniversary, and was always happiest when her children or grandchildren were able to drop in and see her.

Mrs. Paddock passed away Tuesday, May 5, aged 79 years, 7 months, 13 days. She leaves a beloved husband, three sons, Stuart R. of Palatine; Charles of Arlington Heights, and David, of San Francisco, three daughters, Lucile and Mrs. Daisy Daniels of Arlington Heights, and Mrs. Jeanette Nichols, of Philadelphia, Pa., five grandchildren, two brothers and one sister.

The figures will be found on page 8. Similar figures Cook county alone were published in a recent issue.

Great Changes in Illinois Agriculture

Value of farm land under cultivation in Illinois decreased practically one half in the ten years from 1920 to 1930 according to figures released Tuesday by the Bureau of the Census. There were 22,585 less farms, and the average value per acre per farm worked sank from $18.50 to $108.97.

There was a big decrease in medium sized farms; an increase of farms of nine acres and under, and a small increase of farms of sizes of 260 acres and up.

There were big drops of horses, beef cattle and hogs; with smaller decreases in milk cows and chickens.

Corn held its own almost, both in acreage and bushels; and the same with oats; wheat fell off over half in acreage, and over half in yield; barley increased over 100 per cent in both; only one-fifth the rye was raised in 1930 than there was in 1929; and there was an increase about 20 times in mixed grains grown for feed. In potatoes there has been a reduction of almost half in the acreage, but a big increase in the yield per acre, due probably to the better methods of those farmers who have continued to raise them.

The figures will be found on page 8. Similar figures Cook county alone were published in a recent issue.

14. When and by whom were the present proportions established?

15. On what days should the Flag be displayed?

16. What naval commander first flew the Stars and Stripes? When and over what ship?

17. What is the proper salute to the Flag by a man or boy in civilian clothes? By a woman or a girl?

18. What is generally recognized as our National anthem? By whom was it written? Under what conditions?

19. How is the Flag displayed on Memorial Day?

20. When a Flag becomes faded, frayed or otherwise damaged, how should we dispose of it?

Mother's Day Proclaimed by Gov. Emmerson

Springfield, Ill.—Gov. Louis L. Emmerson has proclaimed Sunday, May 10, as Mother's day. "May we join in a concerted observance of the occasion afforded us to express, in a small way, the love, the reverence, the lasting debt due Mother," the proclamation reads.

Observing that the day is also designated as Rural Life Sunday, the Governor suggests that at that time, citizens should, collectively, voice petitions in behalf of farmers. He observes that "In preserving and honoring the ideals of Motherhood, neither individual nor nation shall wander far from the way of right and justice."

Urge Better Care of Mothers

Springfield, Ill.—Mother's Day, May 10, might well be devoted to dissemination of information that may reduce the mortality rate of motherhood, according to Dr. Andy Hall, director of the state department of public health. From the records, Dr. Hall observes that the 1,346,710 visits of the stork in Illinois within the past ten years, have cost the lives of 8,274 mothers and that this has deprived that many infants of maternal care. Pre-natal care is stressed by the health director as a factor in increasing safety of motherhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirchhoff were married in marriage May 1, 1881, by Rev. Roeder, pastor of the Arlington Heights church. They started housekeeping upon the farm at which the celebration was held Sunday. They moved to Mt. Prospect in 1917. Both were born in this vicinity. Mrs. Kirchhoff's parents were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Busse, of Elk Grove. Mr. Kirchhoff was born in Wheeling township and bears the same name as his father.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Kirchhoff have been a part of this community all of their lives, have done their share in its development. Their friends and acquaintances are many. In behalf of these, the Herald extends congratulations.

The couple have received many greetings and has asked their pastor to acknowledge them and to thank the relatives for the gifts received.

Program for Younger Boys Available In General Scout System

There has long been a demand for some kind of a program for boys too young to be Scouts. This has been met recently after several years of scientific research by the National Council of Boy Scouts, when they made available the new Cub program. This program which provides for boys from 9 to 12 years old has met with success throughout the country; and recently special permission was granted to Northwest Suburban council to place into operation a number of Cub Packs.

Trained Leaders

Realizing that the need for trained leaders was as important for the Cub program as with Scouting, the Council took immediate steps to train men for this work. Approximately twenty men attended this section of the recent training course for this work, and under the leadership of Herbert Walker of Park Ridge received elementary training for operating a Cub Pack.

It is expected that packs will be organized in the near future. At the present time there are no official Cub Packs, and only organizations and institutions whose success with the Scout program has been evidenced will be permitted to organize packs under this new Cub program.

Money borrowed and anticipation warrants issued with interest thereon, has helped to put the Village of Palatine in a very safe financial plumb.

An examination of the Village records reveals the following financial condition of the general funds.

Bills approved for payment, pay rolls approved, special assessments against village property unpaid and a few bills in adjustment, all come to a total of $18,807.25.

As against this indebtedness we have on hand as of April 27, $9,214.27 in cash and the following amounts due in taxes: For 1929 a balance of $4,000.00 and due on 1930 taxes, $18,000.00 or a total possible of assets of $31,214.27.

This would leave a net indebtedness of $12,213.96 at this time provided that all 1929 and 1930 taxes were now in our hands and all anticipation warrants could be taken up to that amount.

The balance of the 1929 taxes and the 1930 taxes are not available at this time which means that interest will continue to pile up and that the village has no available funds on hand with which to carry on the business of the village.

With a net indebtedness of over $12,000 at this time, provided all taxes were paid up; and with nothing on hand with which to meet current expenses, it is plainly to be seen that only the utmost economy for many years can put the Village back on a sound financial basis.

It will, therefore, be my policy to insist upon the utmost economy in all village affairs in order that Palatine may eventually clear herself of debt. I trust that the citizens of Palatine will understand the financial condition of the village.

The Western "movie" which "high-brows" used to dismiss as "horse opera," has come into its own since capable writers turned their talent to depicting the life of the early West. "The Conquering Horde" which plays the Catlow theatre, Barrington Saturday night of this week, typifies the All-Western type which is now being produced. It is a screen-talking version of Emerson Hough's novel "North of 36."

It is a tale of red-blooded doings in a day of empire-building that is still remembered by oldsters who were there in those hectic times.

It tells of the adventures of a courageous band of Texas rangers led by a soldierly youth into the unknown of the wilderness, across strange and perilous fastnesses into the final triumph of their ambitions—civilization with its fame and fortune.

As his "first lieutenant" on this daring enterprise is the girl who feared to love him because she thought him a traitor, but respected him nevertheless because she knew his courage and his strength.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" has a parallel; what it did to center public opinion on the enslavement of the negro, East Lynne did to center attention on the social bondage of womankind.

"The Conquering Horde" has everything that appeals to the public taste for excitement and spine-tingling action. It is a corking good yarn of the always-fascinating outdoors.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" has a parallel; what it did to center public opinion on the enslavement of the negro, East Lynne did to center attention on the social bondage of womankind.

Seventy years ago Mrs. Henry Wood wrote that emotional masterpiece, "East Lynne." It has played to, and been read by over 100,000,000 people.

It now comes to a newer generation as the finest glorification of the audible screen.

Ann Harding is starred as the lovely heroine—Isabel Carlyle—and the two men in her life are ably delineated by Clive Brook and Conrad Nagel, featured players.

The Catlow Theatre, Barrington will present "East Lynne" Thursday and Friday nights, May 14 and 15.

Waymans Return From Sunny Texas; Like The Country

After six months' stay in the Rio Grande valley of Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Levi B. Wayman, 702 N. Dunham avenue, Arlington Heights, arrived home at 7 o'clock Thursday evening last week, having started from their Alamo, Texas, home, at 6:50 a.m. Monday. Carl Johnson, 736 N. Mitchell, drove their car, he having gone down and spent the winter with them. They have planted to grape fruit, oranges and tangerines. They were there six months to a day, having left Arlington Heights October 27. During the winter, which seemed more like summer, they built a home, which is now occupied by a family of newcomers while their own home is being built.

Mrs. Wayman remarks upon the friendliness of the neighbors in the valley, all being desirous of making newcomers feel at home.

They had but one frost during the entire winter, and another time it went down to 40 degrees. They also had more rain than usual, but most of the time it was sunny, warm and very enjoyable.

It is a land of plenty—plenty to eat; all are welcome to go in anybody's vegetable patch and help himself for his family's needs; Mrs. Wayman said they spent practically nothing for vegetables all winter. Vegetables reach a greater perfection than here; the carrots for instance are so much sweeter and finer that they taste almost like a different vegetable.

The early vegetables went beginning this year; cabbage was down to about $3 a ton, and great fields of beets and cabbages could not be sold at any price. So while in other parts of the country people were short of food; while fields of delicious vegetables were simply discarded under for fertilizer. Late prices, however, brought fair prices; farmers received $1.75 per $2 a crate for tomatoes, and ten cents a pound for cucumbers. Asparagus they enjoyed right out of the gardens all winter.

People buy their water rights with the land, but have to pay regular fees for service, having the water turned on. Cisterns are filled through filters by irrigation, as the well water is not good.

Crops are grown between the trees, to cover the ground from the sun, and thereby economize the moisture. Orchards will be seen now with corn as high as the trees. A yellow-blossomed sweet clover is used a good deal for discing in for fertilizer. "Ethel trees" resembling willows, are used as wind-breaks.

Bermuda grass makes very good lawns, and is something of a weed in the cultivated land.

The social life is very fine, with the congenial neighbors all bent on making it pleasant for each other. Mrs. Wayman would have liked to have had Mr. Behrens sell even more Arlington Heights people some of these Rio Grande farms, as home schools are especially appreciated. Schools are splendid, according to Mrs. Wayman; and churches very good also. Near them they have a community church, with people of 20 denominations represented. The Lutherans and Catholics also have their churches nearby.

On their return trip they passed through San Antonio, Dallas, Muskogee, Okla.; Joplin, Springfield and St. Louis, Mo.; on the way down they went by way of Cairo, Memphis, Little Rock and Texarkana, Ark., to Dallas and then between San Juan and Donna, about 17 miles north of the Rio Grande river.

Distances mean little in Texas. Mrs. Wayman said, as people are accustomed to drive in a given time over much greater distances than here.

It is a great country for children with an abundance of good fresh things to eat, outdoor life and sunshine.

Listening In

It's easy enough to mind your own business as long as your neighbor hasn't a radio.—Arkansas Gazette.

Financial Standing of Arlington Hts

The Big Sewer

Contrary to general belief there is no large cash balance in the big sewer fund for the reason that bonds are not issued except to pay bills. There was a deficiency of $3,055.03 in this fund April 1. Collections and issuing of bonds during the month enabled the treasurer to pay over $10,024.58 in vouchers, leaving a balance of $1,649.92.

Await Auditor's Report

A comprehensive report showing the total cost of the big sewer and other improvements would not appear upon a monthly statement of the treasurer as that report concerns only the current month. Definite figures in that regard, the Herald understands, will be obtainable later for publication.

1930 Time Warrants

Outstanding 1930 time warrants total $13,508.79. The greater part of this amount is due the Public Service Co. The first time warrant on the 1930 taxes was issued Oct. 6. A total of 16 such warrants were issued prior to April 2. Upon the latter date 62 warrants were issued taking care of many accounts. No time warrants were issued for labor.

To Stage First Aid Contest Here May 25; Part of Scout Work

A famous physician said recently, "If I were injured and in need of first aid, and no Doctor was immediately available, I should prefer to have a Boy Scout render first aid, for I know they are properly trained not only in the fundamentals of first aid work, but are prepared to act quickly and efficiently, to think clearly and do only those things which will be helpful to the patient."

Prepare for Contest Here

One of the most important features of the whole Scout program which is thoroughly stressed by all leaders is the first aid work. Boys qualifying for Second Class rank receive training in the elementary first aid, and complete this training for the First Class award.

Those desiring to go further may qualify for the First Aid merit badge. In addition to this, it has been the practice for several years for local Scouts to participate in the Chicago First Aid contest conducted under the auspices of the American Red Cross. Many local troops are now preparing for the next contest to be held the latter part of this month. All the Northwest Suburban troops will compete Monday, May 25. Plans are being made to hold the contest in the Gymnasium at the Arlington Heights High School.

To Award President's Trophy

The winning team will receive an award known as the "President's Trophy" for efficiency in First Aid. This has been made available by Mr. A. L. Webster, president of the N. W. Suburban Council. The winning team will also represent the Northwest Suburban Council in the final contest to be held in Chicago during the first week in June. At this time they will compete against teams from Chicago and other suburbs for additional trophies.

For the past two years teams representing the N. W. Suburban council have won the Patten trophy which is awarded to the best team in the Northwest suburbs. In 1929 the team from Troop 12 of the Methodist church in Des Plaines was the winning team, and last year Troop 1 of the Methodist church in Park Ridge returned victorious. It will be the effort of the team winning this year to continue this record. Troop 4 of Park Ridge American Legion post were the first to register a team for the coming contest. About ten teams are expected to compete.

Mr. and Mrs. Grandt both are native to Holstein in Germany; he came to America at the age of seventeen; she, as Katherine Butzman came with her parents about six years later. The first American homes of both the Butzman's and Grandt's were in Jefferson Park Ill. Mr. Grandt's Jefferson Park home was on a farm where stands, April 24, 1881, they were united in marriage at Jefferson Park, the Rev. Brunn reading the marriage vows. In 1891 they made their home in Wheeling. Mr. Grandt for some time was a truck gardener; later he was manager at the Wheeling Elevator & Coal Co., where he gained many friends. Later he built a home on Milwaukee avenue, a mile south of

State's Patients

Get Beds at Last

Springfield—More than 5,000 beds have been added to equipment of Illinois state institutions during the first two years of Gov. Louis Emmerson's administration. This alleviation of the crowded conditions that had infirm and many defective patients sleeping on the floor makes it possible to give better accommodations to more than the number of additional beds indicate, the director of public welfare, Rodney H. Brandon, states.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our hearty thanks and appreciation for all kindness and sympathy extended to us in our time of bereavement.

Mrs. Nickolas Pitzen and Her Family.

Mr. Nickolas Pitzen Passes From Earth

Nickolas Pitzen was born June 12, 1862, at Kirschmeiller, Germany. He came to America while young; was married to Mary Grummit in Chicago, October 1, 1893. They came to Arlington Heights in 1902, where they have made their home ever since.

To Mr. and Mrs. Pitzen nine children were born, seven of whom are now living.

Mr. Pitzen died the first of last week, his funeral was held in St. James church Friday, the interment in St. Boniface cemetery.

Beside his wife, Mrs. Pitzen, he leaves to mourn their loss William and Josephine (Mrs. Finell) of Chicago; Bennie, Nickolas, Tillie Mrs. Clarence Miller) Des Plaines; Margaret (Mrs. Walter Swanson) and Joseph.

Mr. Pitzen was a carpenter well known in his work for many years. He built his home on North State road where Mrs. Pitzen, with her younger children and her mother, Mrs. Grummit, still reside. To all these our sympathy goes out in their loss and all life's trials.

"Believe Me Xantippe", Senior Play

The Senior play at the Arlington Heights high school, "Believe Me Xantippe," a picturesquely comedy, will be given May 15, at the High School auditorium.

The cast of principal characters are:

Earl Koppelin as George MacFarland; Clarence McKaig as Arthur Sale; Wallace Volz, as Thornton Brown; Preston Winkelman as "Buck" Kamman; Rudy Seidel as "Sim"; Calloway; Arthur Long as "Wrenn" Rigley; Earl Pahoke as William; Barbara Parks as Dolley Kamman; Viola Holste as Violet; and Marguerite Zimmer as Martha.

The farce starts with a friendly wager of $30,000 that a man can commit a crime and elude the authorities for a year." The chase leads into the mountains of Colorado, where much of the action takes place. Miss White of the English department is directing. Rehearsals have been going on nightly for about two weeks, and will so continue.

CAMP CLOSE BY

One very attractive feature as far as parents of Scouts are concerned, is the fact that the Camp is near by. It is located on Dyer

Lake, eight miles east of Lake

Geneva, about two miles north of Slade's Corners on Route 50, which will make it possible for many of the parents to drive their own cars to Camp and give them an opportunity to see the excellent facilities and equipment that are available.

Registration Open For Boy Scout Camp

Folders containing full description of Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta, which has been selected for Northwest Suburban Scouts this summer, have been sent to the homes of every Scout in the N. W. Suburban area, and officials expect that applications will begin to come in at Council headquarters in Park Ridge the coming week. The Camp opens Sunday, June 14, for N. W. Suburban Scouts, and continues for eight weeks in periods of two weeks each. The Camp and all its facilities are being made available to all local Scouts for $15.00 per period. It is expected that approximately two hundred boys will spend some time in Camp this summer which will be the maximum for local Scouts.

Camp Training Valuable

A period at Scout Camp of two weeks or longer is a valuable asset to the modern boy, and although many parents look upon the camp experience as one of strictly physical benefits, there are many other valuable features to be had at a well organized Scout Camp. The Scouts although amply supervised are given many opportunities to develop resourcefulness and self-reliance through the daily and weekly program. Scouts find that to a certain extent they must assume the responsibility for taking care of their own clothing and equipment, and along with the opportunities for fun test passing, swimming, athletics, camp craft, woodcraft, Indian lore, camp fires, and other experiences so attractive to Scouts. They also experience the satisfaction of orderliness and self-responsibility.

Program for Advanced Scouts

The program of Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta provides interesting features for Scouts with camp experience. In addition to the base camp which is primarily for Scouts who are to camp for the first time and Scouts doing special work along advancement lines, there is provision for older Scouts to follow the Indian Lore program living in tepees as the Indian did, or the Pioneer program which provides that they may live in lean-to log cabins. Both of these features are very attractive, and inasmuch as the facilities are limited, Scouts desiring to take advantage of these special activities are urged to register at once.

Springfield.—Inmates on Illinois state institution farms are tending 350 acres of potatoes—an increase of 40 per cent over 1930. This, the welfare department authorities state, is a detail of the plan to reduce the cost of institution rations by increased production of articles of diet. All potato fields look promising. In general, alfalfa and clover fields are turned to potatoes. Commercial fertilizers will be used more extensively than before.

At Joliet, last year, a fertilizer test revealed an increase of production per acre from 100 to 212

bushels per acre.

Garden Club to Meet; Learn How to Make an Outdoor Living Room

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Klehm Wednesday evening, May 13. While the program committee seldom announces its programs ahead every meeting is very much worth while.

The last meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Fred Schmitt, was one of the most delightful and profitable. Mr. Leo Nack of Chicago who is secretary of the Chicago chapter of the American Rose Society, also an officer in the Men's Garden club of Chicago, gave a lecture illustrated with slides, picturing his own garden for which he won the $1000 contest of the Chicago Tribune three years ago. Mr. Nack has a delightfully informal way of treating his subject; he invites questions which he answers readily and well.

The four main points which he asked his audience to remember were:

1. The garden is the outdoor living room.

2. It is also a good place to indulge one's hobby.

3. In choosing plants we should select the best varieties of each type chosen.

4. At all times some flower or flowers should be in bloom, keeping the color harmony.

Mr. Nack not only gave these rules; he showed his listeners how.

The Arlington Heights Garden club is planning a Flower Show the last of July and first of August.

Further details of the Flower Show will be in the next issue.

OBSERVER'S NOTES

Years ago a literary organization invited me to read, or rather prepare a history of May Day in our own country. This I did to the best of my ability, and to the satisfaction of the scholarly assembly before whom it was read.

Recently speaking of Tammany and the origin of our May Day celebrations a request came to have that paper published again. Thus comes here the true history of America's one saint Tammany and of the origin of our May Day customs.

May was the month of Zif in the Jewish calendar. Zif signifying the time of blossoms. Solomon began the building of the Temple on the first day of May. The May Day festival dawns on the horizon of the past with the Flora of the Ancient Romans.

On the first morning of this month, sacred to Maia, the mother of Mercury, the youths of the Eternal city went out into the groves to gather branches and garlands with which they decorated the houses and temples.

It was a day of joy and of license. Picturesque too, with white-robed processions, decorated marble temples and sacrifices of white woolen lambs garlanded with flowers. With May Day, too, was always associated the abdication of Diocletian, May first A. D. 305.

From the joyous May Day customs of the Ancient Romans, with their heathen Flora, to the medieval customs of our Saxon forefathers, is but a flash of thought.

Still in Christian England as in heathen Rome, youths and maidens stole away to the wood and meadow in the early morning to gather branches and to pluck the fairest of flowers and still are dwelling and houses of worship made beautiful with these offerings. Instead of these offerings, we have joyous Christian carols.

Merry dances on the green about the garlanded May pole, or under the spreading May tree. All part of the rollicking joy in Merry England. No other festival was so gaily and so happily observed until Puritan severity put a stop to "All such heathenish pranks and jollities."

Our English poets have given us beautiful pictures of these old time pageants and festivities that shall forever live in song and story. Puritan prejudice could not prevent the May Day from becoming for many years in our early history distinctively an American holiday observed with unique pretension and unusual honor.

Not in commemoration of any important historical or national event, but as a day suitable thru beauty of season to be assigned as the nominal birthday and celebrated as the anniversary day of Saint Tammany, the chosen patron saint of America. The name Tammany is so associated with New York and New York politics today many of us will be surprised to learn that the Society of Tammany was not of New York origin.

Nor was the great Sachem Tammany, to whom the title of saint was given, and for whom the society was named, an Indian of Manhattan. He was a Delaware Indian.

Upon the first of May And Dewey was the Admiral Down in Manila bay.

It is a common custom for school children, in some sense to imitate old England's customs on May Day. May Day picnics, flower gatherings and May queens are all full of joyous interest to the younger people, even today. The hanging of May baskets is also a common custom, both among English and German people. It is a pretty custom, never old.

Not only May Day, but the whole month is by the Roman Catholics devoted to the Virgin Mary. May is called an unlucky month in which to be married, but a delightful month to be born in. The emerald is the gem belonging to May. Our English foremothers used to dip their dainty canopic kerchiefs in sparkling dew before the sun shone upon it to bathe their fair faces. If this was persisted in throughout the month a beautiful complexion was ensured. There are other legendary and historical customs ascribed to this benign saint, but these suffice.

The traditions of his life are many. That he was sorely tried by the devil, by calumny, affliction and strategem; finally was assaulted by main force. The battle between Satan and Tammany raged many moons. Many forests were trampled under foot and devoured into prairies. At last the devil was vanquished and driven to Manhattan Island where he found congenial friends.

Certain traditions place the wigwam of Tammany on the site of Princeton college; others make him the first friendly native Indian to welcome William Penn. His name was revered among his people as a mighty brave. He certainly exhibited magnificent qualities as a savage hero, and his life illustrates the highest ideals found among Indians.

Naturally when an Indian saint was chosen by the Army, the May Day celebration in his honor assumed an Indian form. Recollections of the old English May Day also entered into and largely influenced the rites. A wigwam was erected and a May pole crowned with a liberty cap bearing a tomahawk; wampum, etc., was planted near it.

Tammany was personated by a comrade dressed in skins, feathers and war paint, who delivered "a long talk" full of exhortations to patriotism, courage and all manly virtues with great pomp and pageantry, all danced around the May pole in imitation of the war dance, with feathers and buck tails in their hats. The observance of the day spread outside the army and Saint Tammany was everywhere honored. Poets sang his praises, plays were written of his life, forts were named for him and societies formed bearing his name.

While to America's patron Saint was dedicated the associated rites of heathen Rome and Christian England interwoven and mingled with the weird savagery of this new world, in the annals of our later history.

It remained for one brave man to set the custom of annexing little scraps of the world outside our immense immensities, by capturing Manila on a May day morning. O, dewy was the morning, monium reigns. Roman idolatry, British buffoonery, even Indian savagery could devise nothing to equal the fierce madness of May Day moving scenes in modern Chicago. Some far off future scribe may be able to fitly portray these singular customs when they shall have passed into history. Language fails us today.

Individually, we all have our May day experiences. Each returning May comes to us teeming with old memories, and full of new promise. It is not always the first day, more often in our fickle climate the real May Day is nearer the middle. But never mind, you'll know when it comes. Then let us all go Maying where nature's harps are playing, for it is May day and play day, and we'll dream the whole day long.

O, the bounteous beauty belonging to that dawn. Though the air be kind and gentle, there may be the slightest suggestion of frost, a hint of its gleaming crystal teeth threatening to nip; adding a keenly zest to the otherwise bland atmosphere. In the midst of your work day worries, pause for the nonce and let sweet fancy go a-Maying.

In our own day in our near metropolis, most singular customs are practiced on May first. For days, nay weeks prior to its advent, the inhabitants rush frantically about in mad confusion. Homes are invaded by wild hordes of houseseekers. The very sanctum sanctorum are pried into by eager, curious eyes. The whole is set afire with a sudden, wild unconquerable desire to change residences.

Until finally when May Day morning is ushered in, throughout the streets of the great city pan-the faintly derisive laughter of the long wintered crow, and the tender plaintive wail of the woodland mourning dove.

How deeply blue the sky, how fleecy white the clouds floating above you! You can feel the sway of the graceful branches as they filter and fleck the sunlight upon you. Nay, you almost hear the rustle of angel wings as you are thrilled by the sweet influences around you.

Great spaces of bluebells, adder's tongue, spring beauties and violets, purple, white and yellow, Dicentra, sweet William and snowy troods of nodding trilliums. There, too, will be mysterious mounds of mandrakes, pushing their quain heads up through the soft dark mould. Dainty crumpled fronds of feathery ferns unfolding to the light, and whole confusions and synods of funny jack-in-the-pulpit, all ways forgetting his Bible.

Through and beyond this marvelous dream tapestry, you will hear the faintly derisive laughter of the long wintered crow, and the tender plaintive wail of the woodland mourning dove.

And thrill our hearts with song, The charm of love, whose mystic spell Shall with the years increase.

We'll live the joy of May Day skies, When hopes are well begun;

When you and I go Maying,

We'll journey toward the sun,

We'll use the old, old magic,

That shall never, never cease,

Elinore Crisler Haynes.

Our hearts will own a rapture fine,

That time can ne'er outrun;

For, when you and I go Maying,

We'll travel toward the sun.

Elinore Crisler Haynes.

Township Treasurer's Report

Special Hard Road Fund

Of Funds Received and Disbursed for the Fiscal Year Ending March 31, 1931

STATE OF ILLINOIS, County of Cook, Town of Elk Grove—ss. Office of Treasurer of the Special Hard Road Fund.

To the Highway Commissioner, Town of Elk Grove, County of Cook, State of Illinois:

The low cost of lots in Scarsdale and the home financing plan we are able to offer purchasers means an opportunity that may not be here later.

A Home That's All Your Own

PROPERTY is a great thing. There is not a man amongst us who does not hope to own his own home someday.

Most of us wait so long for the opportunity that we miss it and continue to pay rent.

The present business depression, bad as it has been, is creating an opportunity for local home seekers.

Under normal conditions Scarsdale lots would not be on the market at the present low price.

The new financing plan is easier and better than anything offered in the prosperous years.

It is opportunity. Are you going to grasp it.

Visit Scarsdale and judge for yourself as to the property, the values and then ask us about financing.

WARREN LEADS CONFERENCE IN BASEBALL

Gehrke, the Star Pitcher, Holds Main Strength of Top Team

With half the Northwest Conference baseball season played, Warren appears to be the strongest contender for the championship. Defeating Antioch, Ela, and Wauconda, they are leading the rest as the only undefeated club. Franklin Park has lost to Wauconda and Ela, Wauconda has lost to Warren and Antioch, and Ela has won from Franklin Park and lost to Warren.

Warren's strength lies entirely in Gehrke's hands. He has pitched the entire three conference games and allowed but eight hits in twenty-two innings and has an enviable strikeout record to his credit. His fast ball is causing the opposing batters to pop up to the infielders. But four balls have been hit to the outfield on his delivery in the three Conference games. He is being ably supported behind the log by Skarda whose throwing arm is causing opposing base runners to hug their bases very closely. Warren's weakness at the present time appears to be in the hitting department. Although they have outhit their opposition in every game, they nevertheless appear weak at the plate.

Official standing:

Warren	3	0	1000
Ela	1	1	500
Antioch	1	1	500
Wauconda	1	2	333
Franklin Park	0	2	600

Friday, May 1, Warren took Wauconda into camp after an extra inning game by the score of 3 to 2.

Adopted N. W. Conference Baseball Schedule

April 10, Wauconda vs. Antioch at Leyden.

April 17, Warren vs. Antioch at Wauconda vs. Leyden at Leyden.

April 24, Warren vs. Ela at Ela, Leyden vs. Antioch at Leyden.

May 1, Wauconda vs. Warren at Wauconda, 2 to 3, extra innings.

Ela vs. Antioch at Antioch.

May 8, Warren vs. Leyden at Warren, Wauconda vs. Ela at Ela, May 12, Antioch vs. Wauconda at Wauconda, Leyden vs. Ela at Ela.

May 15, Antioch vs. Warren at Antioch, Leyden vs. Wauconda at Leyden.

May 19, Warren vs. Ela at Warren, Antioch vs. Leyden at Antioch.

May 22, Wauconda vs. Warren at Warren, Ela vs. Antioch at Ela.

May 29, Leyden vs. Warren at Leyden, Wauconda vs. Ela at Wauconda.

HITCH HIKES AND WALKS TO GOLF VICTORY

Bublitz Wins Close High School Match at Hillcrest

The North Division High School Golf meet held Saturday at the Hillcrest Golf club near Barrington, resulted in first place going to Willie Bublitz of Calumet City, with the low score of 84.

R. Saillie of Deerfield-Shields, and Gear of Deerfield, tied for second, with scores of 85.

C. Saillie and Tiogo of Deerfield, and Boring of Winnetka tied for fourth place with 86. On the play-off, Gerald Saillie won the fourth place.

Deerfield-Shields thus qualified three men for the state meet. Only four could be qualified from the district; they also had to shoot not over 18 above par, or 88 for this course in order to qualify, but they did so.

Other players who were all under 90 were Kusma of Wheaton, Ayton of Evanston, Wilson of Waukegan, Kuhn of Woodstock, Kokes of Cicero, Gooran and Gootlieb of Waukegan, Hoppe of Cicero, and Cary of Deerfield. It was thus a very close match.

Willie Bublitz and Knipp of Thornton Fractional high school had taken the "L" to Niles Center, hitch-hiked to Palatine, and walked the rest of the way to the golf course. They arrived there at 11 o'clock, after the other players had teed off. Bublitz had 27 for the first five holes.

He completed the first nine in 45, played the last nine in 38, and won the low score in the tournament.

Bublitz and R. Saillie were in the finals at the State meet last year; Saillie then ranked second and Bublitz fifth.

Scores ranged from 84 to 104, 49 players teed off, representing Arlington Heights, Barrington, Antioch, Woodstock, Dundee, Evanston, Deerfield, S. Sterling Morton (Cicero), Winnetka, Riverside-Brookfield, Thornton Fractional, and Wheaton.

Principal V. I. Brown of Arlington Heights was in charge of the event.

Palatine Wins From Libertyville

Palatine freshmen, sophomores and juniors competing against Libertyville freshmen and sophomores, won the lion's share of points when they outscored their rivals by a score of 69-55. Starting off with a first and second, Palatine took the lead and was never headed thereafter.

This meet gave some valuable experience to some of the younger boys for both schools. Libertyville has a very powerful track team, but if we can win from their boys as freshman and sophomores, we can also win from them when these same boys become seniors provided we work hard enough.

Saturday of this week LaGrange is host to the state district track squads. The cream of the Lake Shore teams will be entered from Waukegan in the north to Oak Park, Riverside and Wheaton on the south.

Among the entries are teams from five Northwest Conference schools: Bensenville, Palatine, Barrington, Libertyville and Arlington Heights are entering the pick of their squads. Of these it is doubtful if any other than Libertyville will so much as score in the meet, the competition being the keenest anywhere in the state of Illinois.

Arlington is entering 17 men. Those going are Sciaro, Nwberg, Lemke, Long, Luerssen, Koelling, Kopplin, Weinrich, Stefanik, Hauff, Szasz, Brodnan, R. Johnson, Mors, Hasz, McNally and Elliott.

Preliminaries in the meet begin at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning with most of the finals scheduled for the afternoon.

On Monday afternoon Prof. Rauf of the grade school brought over his grade track team to compete with the Freshman boys of the high school. The Freshmen won a close and interesting track meet with a score of 45-54. About 15 Freshman boys reported and participated in this meet. We were very glad to have had such a large number out. However we would like to see all these boys compete in every dual meet that is held here. Even though they do not get any points they will be getting some experience and training that will help them to become better track men when they become Juniors and Seniors.

What Palatine needed in this meet and in all the meets so far was more freshmen and sophomores out for the track and field events, so that we could have a 3 men in every event.

This word means: "A style of decoration distinguished by a profusion of meaningless but often delicately executed ornaments in imitation of rockwork, shells, foliage, and scrolls massed together; prevalent in Europe during the Seventeenth and Eighteenth centuries; hence, anything that is eccentric, quaint, tasteless, or odd in art or literature."

It is pronounced ro-kō-kō—first and third o's as in go; the c's pronounced as k.—Literary Digest.

Winnebago County, Ill., Schools Give Individual Help to Pupils

Winnebago County, Illinois, rural schools, under the direction of Superintendent Irving Pearson, have adopted a plan of individualized instruction which offers many of the possibilities of that method of teaching in our best metropolitan schools.

According to the principle accepted by Superintendent Pearson, class instruction is needed only when a new subject is being introduced, when group discussion is helpful, or when it is necessary to test the progress of the class by which he finds most difficult for him. Another advantage of this method is that more time is available for the teacher for assisting younger pupils, who have not learned the art of independent study.

Other devices for improving the services of Winnebago County schools include:

The appointment of a full-time rural supervisor.

The establishment of demonstration schools in which teachers may receive supervisors use the best methods of teaching.

The inauguration of a plan whereby teachers visit each other's schools to get new ideas of teaching practice.

A selection of textbooks specially prepared to use with methods of study in which the pupil is responsible for much self-direction.

MUSIC PROJECT

Lenore Repmann

Maine Center School, Dist. 64½

I take lessons on two instruments and play in our school orchestra. I have taken piano lessons three years and clarinet lessons less time. Some of my latest piano pieces are "Prelude in C Minor," "Grand Polka," "De Concert," "Impromptu," "Grand March De Concert," and "Liebestraum." My latest piece is "Cantique De Amour."

It is very difficult and I enjoy playing it. I practice from 1 hour to an hour and a half a day. My musical instructor is Mr. Fred Thies.

Cooking

Vacation I helped my mother cooking. I baked cakes, cooked potatoes, fried meat, made soup and many other things. I liked best to bake cakes, upside down, layer, fruit marble, sunshine and fudge cakes.

I did not sell any of my vegetables. It all went on the table before I had a chance. Once a chicken got into my garden and scratched up my onions, and picked at my lettuce. It had a very nice meal out of them.

I like to have a garden. I am planting my garden June 1; when my father plowed my mother's, he also plowed mine. Then I crushed the lumps. I planted turnips, radishes, onions, carrots, beets, etc.

I did not sell any of my vegetables. It all went on the table before I had a chance. Once a chicken got into my garden and scratched up my onions, and picked at my lettuce. It had a very nice meal out of them.

I like to have a garden. I am planning on keeping the same project for next year, too, but I shall keep out the chickens.

MY COOKING PROJECT

Ruby Thrien

I like to cook. Since I have been able to help my mother with the cooking and in that way I have learned to do it. In our project work we learn to do by doing. When I was quite a small girl I learned to peel potatoes and then little by little mother taught me how to prepare other vegetables.

One day mother gave me my first lesson in plain cake baking. Now I can read a recipe and make cakes without much help.

The secret of a good salad is to have the vegetables and fruits cold and fresh and crisp. Salads are especially good for us in the summer because they are cooling and refreshing and at the same time nutritious.

I like to make desserts, puddings and pie.

This is the first year I have taken cooking and I have liked it very much. During the year I cooked Buttered carrots, noodle soup, molasses cookies, chocolate nut fudge. I also made pickles. Some time I would earn 50 cents and another time about 45 cents.

With the money I earned I helped buy clothes for the children for the winter. I earned about $8.25 altogether. I was sure glad I took wage because I made much money.

Kitty Korner School, Dist. 14

This is the first year I have taken cooking and I have liked it very much. During the year I cooked Buttered carrots, noodle soup, molasses cookies, chocolate nut fudge. I also made pickles. Some time I would earn 50 cents and another time about 45 cents.

With the money I earned I helped buy clothes for the children for the winter. I earned about $8.25 altogether. I was sure glad I took wage because I made much money.

Hyde Park in London

Although there are towns all over America named Hyde Park, the first was and is a real park and not a town. With its neighbor, Kensington gardens in London, it comprises about 600 acres and is the city's chief breathing space. It once belonged to the monks of St. Peter's, Westminster, but fell to Henry VIII, when the monasteries were abolished.

I have liked this project very much.

THEATRE SHOWS FOR NEXT WEEK

The Front Page At United Artists

"The Front Page," the famous stage play that held Broadway spellbound a solid year, and has won some record-breaking business throughout the country, starts at the United Artists Theater, Friday, May 8, in a picture of the same name.

Torn from the front page of our daily newspapers this daring realistic drama comes as a revealing truth of the reporters life, his thrills and excitement, his laughs and pathos, it marks the season's zenith in high hilarity and bitter deep-biting satire.

Adolphe Menjou plays a harsh, hard-boiled, but yet lovable city editor. Pat O'Brien, a newcomer to the screen, will long be remembered in his role as Hilda Johnson.

Check Headlights Motor Club Advises

Chicago, Ill.—Correct adjustment of headlights is a safety measure as well as an aid to vision, and can be accomplished in many instances by using the doors of a private garage as a screen, points out the Chicago Motor club. "Ascertain the height of the centers of the headlights from the ground, and draw a horizontal line on the nose doors at that height," the club declared in a statement. "Then park the car twenty-five feet from the doors, say on the driveway if it is level. Place a normal load in the car, and switch on the upper beams of the dual-filament lamps. The tops of the beams should fall just below the horizontal line marked on the garage doors."

"Each lamp should be tested separately. The plug can be pulled from one of the lamps, or it can be covered with an opaque cloth. When adjusting the lamps for angle of rays, car owners may at the same time check the focus, if such an adjustment is incorporated in the headlights. It is good practice, too, to apply a mixture of lamp black and alcohol with a soft cloth to the reflectors, and to wipe this off when dry. The illumination can sometimes be doubled or even tripled by virtue of this cleaning."

Young Sinners Sparkling Drama At Oriental Theatre

"Young Sinners," a sparkling comedy-drama, based on Elmer Harris' successful stage play that had a year's run on Broadway and had an extended run in Chicago, opens at the Oriental Theater, Friday, May 8.

"Young Sinners" signalizes the return of the popular screen idol, Thomas Meighan, who portrays the role of a burly Irish trainer, who, at his gymnasium high up in the mountains, brings back to health the profligate son of a multimillionaire.

"Young Sinners" is a story of he ultra modern generation and its utter disregard for conventions and its impulsive actions when the members act to decide their own destinies.

The supporting cast is one of brilliance, consisting of Hardie Albright, brilliant and handsome leading man of the New York legitimate stage; Dorothy Jordan, beautiful and popular young screen actress.

On the stage next Friday, Benny Morell and His Versatile Orchestra bring you another dazzling stage production called "Impressions." Spread the News! Duke Ellington and His New York Harlem Cotton Club Orchestra are coming back to the Oriental Theater for one week only, Friday, May 15.

Ramon Novarro in Drama "Daybreak" At the Chicago

"Daybreak" will soon startle Chicago!

Only once in a blue moon there comes a picture so important in story and intense in action that the entire film industry joins in recommending it to every ardent theater-goer. Such a picture is "Daybreak," starring Ramon Novarro and coming to the Chicago Theater, May 8.

"Daybreak" is taken from Arthur Schnitzler's world-famous story of undying love! It is a story of beautiful Germany of Today, where gay hearts make this one of the most beautiful romances ever pictured on the screen.

On the stage next Friday we bring you a show that's a little different called "Imagine My Embarrassment." It is one of the jolliest and happiest stage shows ever produced on the Chicago Theater Stage.

Boosters Win First Ball Game

Arlington Heights Gives Home Team Big
Send-off

WILL PLAY ROGERS PARK NEXT SUNDAY

The opening game of the baseball season by the Arlington Boosters proved quite a success, about 600 attending, despite the cool weather.

The parade started at the American Legion Home on West Campbell street. Chief Skoog led the way as the American Legion Drum and Bugle corps followed by the baseball teams and many fans made their way to the east side park.

Dreyer's Electric Shop furnished entertainment with their truck broadcasting the Cubs and Sox games; and Manager Baumgartener of the Boosters, spoke over the microphone to the fans. The new manager said they were going to try to give Arlington Heights a better baseball team than ever before. Mr. Baumgartener, by all appearances is able to do this.

Major Flentie was next called to the microphone and said that with the proper support of the fans, Arlington Heights may now go out and bring home the pennant, or "the bacon."

Mr. Flentie then spoke a few words about good sportsmanship, saying, "Whether winning or losing, play the game fair and be a good sport, and in the end we will come out on top."

Messrs. Flentie and Baumgartener were then presented with gorgeous bouquets of flowers from the Boosters, wishing them success.

The umpire announced the batteries. Dieball and Verba for the Boosters, and Blackstone and Scot for the visitors, the Billy Niesen's Ball club, and Major Flentie pitched the first ball.

The Boosters finished the game in the long end of a 14 to 5 score. Dieball allowed 6 hits and struck out 11 men.

An inning by inning account of the game follows:

First Inning

Whitey walked; Bloustein struck out; Gordon flied out to Keyes; Heller got to 1st on Setzke's error; Baumgartener drove a long single scoring Whitey and Heller was called out at the plate.

Second Inning

Keyes, Niesen and Zander struck out.

Alberts struck out; Bolte out at 1st unassisted; Verba struck out.

Third Inning

Smith fanned, Page singled, Setzke grounded out to Dieball, Blanchard fanned.

Dieball was out at first on a ground ball; Whitey popped out to Setzke, then came the big inning; Bloustein walked; Gordon singled over second, and Heller the "new third baseman" for the Boosters got a home run in left center, and what a drive it was. Heller thus far got a home run in each of three games with the local team. Baumgartener singled; Alberts got a double and Baumgartener scored; Bolte struck out.

Fourth Inning

Whitey threw out Gorman; Niehaus flied out to Bloustein; Keyes popped out to Heller.

Verba doubled; Dieball struck out; Whitey singled scoring Verba; Whitey scored on Bloustein's hit; Gordon walked; Heller knocked another long fly to center field, but they were playing deep for a long drive and the center fielder made the catch, but Bloustein scored after the catch; Baumgartener singled; Alberts walked and was caught off the bar retiring the side.

Fifth Inning

Niesen struck out; Dieball threw out Zander; LaPlume batted for Smith and flied out to Bolte.

Sixth Inning

Page struck out; Setzke struck out; Blanchard singled; Mitchell got a double scoring Blanchard; Niehaus was tossed out by Heller.

Gordon got a 3 bagger; Heller handled out; Baumgartener grounded out scoring Gordon; Alberts grounded out.

Seventh Inning

Keyes grounded out; Niesen struck out; Zetz walked; Dieball tossed out La Plume.

Meyer batted for Bolte and was out on a fielder's choice; Verba singled; Dieball hit into a double play.

Eighth Inning

Page singled; Setzke got a long drive to center field but Alberts could not see the ball and it went over his head for a triple. The same thing followed when Mitchell got a long drive to center field; Niehaus singled; Niesen struck out; Zetz popped out.

Whitey singled; Bloustein bunted and it went for a hit; Gordon was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bases; Heller singled advancing each man one base; Baumgartener forced Bloustein at the plate; Meyer singled; Verba grounded out; Dieball grounded out.

Ninth Inning

La Plume walked; Page popped out to Verba; Dugan forced La Plume; Blanchard grounded out.

The Boosters wish to thank Chief Skoog; the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps; Dreyer's Electric Shop and everyone who helped to make the opening game a success. Their aim is to give Arlington Heights a real ball team and summer they ask is that the fans come and bring your friends and be convinced that Arlington Heights have a real team.

The Boosters play Rogers Park Sunday, May 10, at the East side ball park. Don't miss this game for it is reported that they have plenty of opposition this game.

Dreyer's Electric Shop will continue to broadcast the Cub and Sox scores at the Booster's games.

In Wonderland

Know you what it is to be a child? It is to believe in love, to believe in loveliness, to believe in belief. It is to turn pumpkins into coaches, and mice into horses, loneliness into loveliness, and nothing into everything; it is to live in a nutshell and to count yourself the king of infinite space.—Francis Thompson.

Steeplechasing Special Feature Here This Season

Chicago.—Otto W. Lehman, president of the Arlington Park Jockey club has directed the mailing to the fraternity of owners and trainers interested in steeplechasing stake blanks for the first revival of the North Shore handicap and the Lake Forest handicap, which will be features of the July racing at Arlington Park. These stakes, the one a gallop of two miles, the other an affair of two miles and a half, each carrying an added money value of $5,000, should gross upward of $6,500 each and pay their winners all of $5,000. They will be open to horses 4 years old and up.

The Arlington meeting, the third under the aegis of the Arlington Park Jockey Club, will begin June 29. It will be marked by a purse distribution of $650,000 or more.

The Stars and Stripes and Arlington handicaps, the one a dash for one mile and a furlong the other a gallop of one mile and a quarter, with $20,000 and $25,000 added, respectively, will top all other American spring and summer races for 3 year olds and over.

This interesting picture tells the story of an inconstant girl who trifles with the affections of many men, and who finally comes face to face with a bitter disillusionment. The original story was written by Booth Tarkington, famous novelist.

Theatre Notes Des Plaines

"Dance Fools, Dance"

Gangster's bullets mix with high society in "Dance Fools, Dance." Joan Crawford's new starring vehicle which opened yesterday for 3 days at the Des Plaines theatre. Joan plays the part of a madcap society debutante who turns to newspaper work after falling into financial and romantic reverses.

Her dance scenes show the Joan of old but her potent emotionalism in the pulp of the plot are even more revealing in showing the depths of her human understanding of drama and tragedy.

"Bad Sisters," Screen Treat

A screen treat is assured the patrons of the Des Plaines theatre in Universal's lively comedy drama, "Bad Sister," and which presents Conrad Nagel, Sidney Fox, Bette Davis, Slim Summerville, ZaSu Pitts and many other motion picture favorites.

Charles Farrell has New Lead

With Charles Farrell, recently voted the most popular actor of the films, and Elissa Landi, beautiful European actress in the leading roles, "Body and Soul" comes Monday and Tuesday to the Des Plaines theatre.

This thrilling Fox Movietone drama tells the story of an American aviation officer who left his bride of four days to go over seas. In France he develops an affair with a mystery girl known as "Pom Pom." After his death in combat one of his fellow officers takes charge of his effects, including unopened letters from the girl.

Attempts to find her prove fruitless but one day a young woman appears and is mistaken for "Pom Pom." A romance and complications follow and the climax is reached when the girl is arrested as a spy and her lover becomes involved.

Doug Fairbanks in Acrobatic Escapade

A one man football team playing against the crew of an ocean liner was the strenuous job of Doug Fairbanks in scenes for his new United Artists picture, "Reaching for the Moon," directed by Edmund Goulding, which comes to the Des Plaines theatre next week.

Attempts to find her prove fruitless but one day a young woman appears and is mistaken for "Pom Pom." A romance and complications follow and the climax is reached when the girl is arrested as a spy and her lover becomes involved.

Beethoven's Infirmary

Beethoven was hard of hearing as early as his thirtieth year, and was totally deaf for years before his death. When dying his last words were: "I shall hear now."

Three to Receive Eagle Scout Awards

Although no Eagle awards have been made in 1931 to Boy Scouts in the N. W. council, three Scouts have completed their requirements for the Eagle badge and are now serving the 90 day testing period required by the local Court of Honor.

At the end of this time if record is such to have won the award of Eagle rank, they will receive their badge. These Scouts appear at the park early in the morning of display, raise the flag which due ceremony and return again at sundown to lower it and fold it properly. The flag is then taken over by one of the other troops who repeat the process on the next occasion.

The following are official days for Flag display in Illinois: Lincoln's birthday, Feb. 12. Washington's birthday, Feb. 22. Lexington Patriotic day, April 19.

Mother's day, May 10—2nd Sunday in May.

Memorial day, May 30. Flag day, June 14. Independence day, July 4. Labor day, first Monday in Sept. Constitution day, Sept. 17. Navy day, Oct. 27. Armistice day, Nov. 11. Illinois day, Dec. 3.

Receive Many Awards

There has been no depression among the ranks of Scouting with the number of awards granted by the Court of Honor. Eight Courts of Honor have been held so far in 1931 with the result that nearly as many awards have been made as were granted during the entire twelve months of 1930. One court was held in Arlington Heights, two in Park Ridge, two in Niles Center, two in Barrington and one in Des Plaines. At these Courts 62 Second Class awards were made while only 74 were granted in 1930.

12 First Class awards have been made this year as compared to 42 for the entire year previous. Merit Badges have been won by 56 different boys and a total of 108 badges awarded which compares favorably with 230 that were granted previously. 11 Star Awards and 2 Life compare well with 24 Star and 6 Life awarded in 1930.

What Scouts Do

What do Boy Scouts do is often asked by persons not familiar with the Boy Scout program; and the answer is difficult because of the great variety of activities participated in by these khaki clad lads.

Whatever the activity is, it is one that has some value in constructive training.

Give Many Hours of Service

One of the two major objectives of the Scout program is the training for citizenship. This training is accomplished through the doing of daily good turns and completing civic service projects of various kinds. During the past year the Scouts of the Northwest Suburban Council have given 1,000 hours of service.
